Frost Brown Todd Dallas Office Adds Two New Members

Securities Litigator Brad Foster and Real Estate Attorney Clay Pulliam Join Team

Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Dallas office continues to grow with Members Brad Foster and Clay Pulliam. Foster is a securities litigator. Pulliam joins FBT's real estate practice and will lead that group's work in the Dallas office.

Foster works with companies navigating complex business disputes, including securities class actions, SEC and FINRA investigations, bankruptcy and receivership litigation, and accounting malpractice claims. He is a Certified Public Accountant and has been recognized by The U.S. Legal 500, named a "Texas Super Lawyer" by Texas Monthly, and honored as a "Legal Lion" by Law360's Weekly Verdict. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, where he was named valedictorian.

Pulliam's private practice focuses on acquisitions and dispositions, development, construction financing, workouts, leasing, and joint ventures for clients in Texas and across the U.S. He is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin School of Law. He previously served as in-house counsel for Hillwood Development Company, handling legal needs for the company's industrial, hospitality, office, residential and retail investments.

"The experience Brad and Clay bring to FBT's Dallas office, and our Securities and Corporate Disputes and Real Estate teams expand the local legal support for area businesses," said Dallas Member-in-Charge Eddy Moore. "More than 100 attorneys work with FBT's real estate practice across our 15 markets. Clay will lead our Dallas Real Estate practice. Brad joins 15 securities litigators at the firm and will be instrumental in building this practice group in Dallas. We are excited for the talent and experience they bring to the team."
