Member Brion St. Amour Joins Frost Brown Todd's Indianapolis Office

Transportation and logistics attorney Brion St. Amour is the newest Member in Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Indianapolis office. St. Amour previously served as the Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for a truck insurance, factoring, and fleet services company. His practice focuses on supporting the challenges of transportation clients from both an intellectual property and transportation regulatory and transactional work perspective. He has experience supporting startups in both the transportation and insurance industries.

"The experience Brion brings to our supply chain industry team will be extremely beneficial to our current and future clients," said FBT Member Eric Baker. "We are happy to have him in our Indianapolis office where he can work closely with several of FBT's attorneys whose practice focuses on supply chain."

St. Amour is a graduate of Indiana University's Robert H. McKinney School of Law and earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Purdue University.
