Alyson N. Hurley

Financial services attorney Alyson N. Hurley joined Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Columbus, OH office as a Member. Hurley assists businesses with commercial real estate and asset-based commercial lending needs. She represents financial institutions and insurance companies closing complex loan transactions and developers in negotiating loan documents and drafting leases, purchase and sale agreements, acquisitions, and coordination of all real estate due diligence work.

"Alyson brings in-depth experience to Frost Brown Todd's Columbus Commercial Real Estate Finance team," said Columbus Member and FBT Commercial Real Estate Finance sub-team leader, Harlan Robins. "Her addition continues the firm's momentum building one of the deepest benches in the finance sector, not only in Central Ohio, but across the FBT network of offices, our varied clients and beyond."

"Frost Brown Todd's national roster of attorneys has strong roots managing the legal needs for real estate and finance industries, with specific focus on the Columbus market," said the head of FBT's Finance industry team, Geoff White. "A number of the region's lenders and developers rely on the support of Frost Brown Todd's industry knowledge, including Harlan and John Cadwallader. We look forward to adding Alyson to make an already great team even better."

Hurley is a graduate of Capital University Law School.
