The 2022 World Trademark Review (WTR) Global Leaders list includes two attorneys from Frost Brown Todd (FBT). Columbus Member Sam Quimby is one of only six private practitioners listed for the state of Ohio. Indianapolis Member Eric Lamb is one of only four Indiana-based private-practice attorneys recognized. Quimby leads FBT's Trademark practice as Service Team Leader. This is the fourth annual (WTR) Global Leaders rankings. Quimby has been honored each year. This is the second year for Lamb.

WTR Global Leaders identifies the best of the best in trademark practice in the world – recognizing just over 200 trademark practitioners across the country. To qualify for inclusion in WTR Global Leaders, law firm trademark practitioners must be ranked in the gold tier of the WTR 1000.

"The continued inclusion of both myself and Eric in the annual WTR Global Leaders ranking is not only a huge honor, but also serves as testament to our passion for trademarks and how that passion plays out in the advancement of the trademark (branding) initiatives of our clients," said Quimby. "We are again humbled by the feedback provided by our clients and colleagues and thank them for taking the time out of their busy schedules to provide such meaningful commentary."

Part of FBT's extensive Intellectual Property practice, the firm's trademark attorneys advise on the entire spectrum of trademark law, from registration, licensing and clearance to policing enforcement, and litigation. From the inception of a brand or mark to its adoption, launch, and throughout its duration, FBT's team understands the importance of anticipating unseen details in order for companies to be successful.
