Frost Brown Todd's Nashville Office Adds Partner Brian Masterson to Tax Practice Group

Partner Brian Masterson has joined Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) tax team. Based in FBT's Nashville office, Masterson has nearly 25 years of tax experience, including advising clients on a variety of state and federal tax matters, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and resolving disputes related to post-closing adjustments. He also works with family offices regarding how to structure the acquisition and disposition of private investments.

Masterson served as the Chair of the Accounting, Finance and Economic Department, Director of the Master of Accountancy program and Assistant Professor of Accounting at Lipscomb University. He was also an adjunct faculty at Georgetown University Law Center and a recurring guest lecturer at the University of Michigan Law School. He is the author of the treatise entitled "Tucker on Tax Planning for Real Estate Transactions."

A graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Law, Masterson earned an LLM in Tax from Georgetown University Law Center. He is admitted to practice law in Tennessee, Washington D.C., and Virginia and is a Certified Public Accountant (Tennessee).

FBT's Nashville team of attorneys and legal staff has a wide range of knowledge. The group has extensive industry experience representing clients in the automotive, manufacturing, blockchain and digital currency, government relations, technology, and international sectors.
