November 2022 Data Privacy News

November 2022 saw the largest private data privacy settlement in U.S. history, a huge Irish fine of Meta, the UK's forging an independent path from the EU, and South Dakota entering US/China foreign relations over TikTok.

Tune in to Episode 107, as the Data Privacy Detective searches monthly for learning from privacy and security developments. As cybercrime grows and governments move from data breach punishment to requiring digital systems to embrace privacy-centric security, consider news from the U.S., EU, UK, Australia, India, and South Korea.
