Forbes magazine has recognized AlvaradoSmith as one of the most recommended firms in Banking & Financial Services.

The firm's Financial Institutions practice protects the rights and defends the interests of banks, lenders, and FinTech companies. Our seasoned trial and appellate attorneys—some of whom held in-house counsel positions in banking before joining the firm—bring a unique understanding of the industry to every client representation. They have won ground-breaking cases and have managed significant dockets, including the portfolio for one of the world's largest banks that, at its peak, involved 1,500 active cases.

This is the first time that Forbes has named the top U.S. corporate law firms. The list is based on endorsements solicited from nearly 100,000 practicing lawyers, including over 2,500 in-house lawyers and other legal industry professionals across the country.

AlvaradoSmith is one of fewer than 250 law firms out of the thousands of law firms throughout the U.S. that serve corporate clients to earn Forbes' recognition.
