Raúl F. Salinas joins the Concordia Leadership Council

Raúl F. Salinas, the Managing Shareholder at AlvaradoSmith's Los Angeles Office, was nominated and invited to join the Concordia Leadership Council.

Concordia is a reputable and impactful nonpartisan organization dedicated to actively creating, elevating, and sustaining cross-sector partnerships for positive social impact. The nonprofit organization produces powerful and inclusive convenings that elevate voices and perspectives from across all sectors and levels to advance critical conversations around globally-impacting issues.

Salinas has over 35 years of experience practicing law and has advised and represented entities around the world. Throughout his legal career, Salinas has demonstrated effective, practical problem-solving and crisis management skills. From corporate governance issues and litigation strategy matters to opportunities or challenges in business and international affairs, Salinas possesses a varied background in legal advising, building trust with and providing guidance to clients.

A strong advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion in the business and legal spheres, Salinas has worked hard to promote connectivity and diversity in corporate America.
