Lawdragon 500 Names Two Frost Brown Todd Attorneys to 2024 Leading Global Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers Guide

Two Frost Brown Todd partners have been named to The Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers guide for 2024.

Attorneys from Frost Brown Todd included in the guide are:

- Patricia Kirkwood Burgess
- Kim Martin Lewis

According to the publication, “These are the lawyers who can make all the difference for a business, debtor or creditor and have done so time and time again.”

Patricia Kirkwood Burgess has helped individuals and businesses navigate financial difficulties and legal disputes to reach innovative, cost-effective and efficient solutions for more than 25 years. Based in the firm’s Nashville office, she chairs the firm’s Mobility (Automotive) Industry Team and leads the firm’s representation relating to troubled automotive suppliers, including large supplier and automotive bankruptcies, and supply chain risk-management matters. She also assists individual and corporate debtors in Chapter 11 bankruptcy, as well as out of court workout negotiations, and she represents secured and unsecured creditors, debtor-in-possession lenders, landlords, utilities and purchasers of assets in complex commercial bankruptcies across a spectrum of industries.

Kim Martin Lewis focuses her practice on corporate reorganization, insolvency, financing, workout, and bankruptcy law. Over her career, Kim has represented a range of companies including several Fortune 500 companies as creditor in many restructurings and bankruptcies nationwide and served as restructuring counsel for several large companies in the retail, manufacturing, services and energy industries.
