Wes Scott Joins Frost Brown Todd's Nashville Office

Frost Brown Todd welcomes Wes Scott as a partner in its Nashville office. Joining the firm's Business Combinations and Capital Transactions practice group, Scott brings extensive experience in middle-market transactions involving manufacturing, essential services, medical technology, business services, and distribution companies.

"Frost Brown Todd is dedicated to delivering sophisticated, cost-effective legal services for businesses operating in the manufacturing, finance and health care innovation industries," said Business Combinations and Capital Transactions Practice Group Leader James Giesel. "Wes's skill in leading and closing transactions, specifically in sectors where we're seeing significant deal activity, will be an important addition to our capabilities as more and more clients engage Frost Brown Todd to serve this growing need."

Scott's practice includes advising clients through complex mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, and joint ventures. He also assists companies in raising equity and debt capital to fund their ongoing operations and financing needs, while frequently serving in an outside general counsel capacity to various clients.

Scott has been named to Best Lawyers in America® in Mergers and Acquisitions Law (2020–2025), Securities and Capital Markets Law (2023–2025) and Corporate Governance Law (2020–2025).

The addition of Scott to Frost Brown Todd's Nashville office represents a continuation of the firm's focus on growing its Nashville office with a particular focus on expanding its offerings in M&A, private equity, fund formation, venture capital and taxation services to new and existing clients.
