

Capacity Standards in California Trust Litigation: Why the Distinction Matters

Nov 11, 2025

Categories:

In the News

Publications

Authors:

Holly Gilani

Frost Brown Todd partner Holly Gilani authored an article for the Daily Journal titled “Capacity Standards in California Trust Litigation: Why the Distinction Matters.” The piece examines how California courts apply different mental capacity standards, testamentary versus contractual, and why the distinction can determine the outcome of high-stakes trust and estate disputes. Gilani also explores the practical implications for litigators and fiduciaries navigating complex capacity challenges.

Read the full article, reprinted with permission from the Daily Journal.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.