Frost Brown Todd Advises Avaz on Strategic Acquisition by PRC-Saltillo

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) advised Avaz Inc., a global assistive-technology company known for its multilingual, design-forward augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) app, in its definitive agreement to be acquired by PRC-Saltillo, global leader in providing AAC technology to individuals with complex communication disorders. For more information, see the press release.

The acquisition positions Avaz as a wholly owned subsidiary of PRC-Saltillo, expanding PRC-Saltillo's portfolio of AAC solutions and strengthening its global reach, including service capabilities across India and Southeast Asia.

The FBT team that advised Avaz included Bobby Majumder and Edward Grattan.
