FBT Gibbons Deepens Texas Corporate Platform with Addition of Darryl Mazow

HOUSTON (February 18, 2025) – Darryl E. Mazow has joined FBT Gibbons as a partner in its Corporate Law practice group in Houston, further expanding the firm's transactional and private equity capabilities serving mid-market businesses and investors nationwide.

"Darryl will be a transformational addition to our corporate practice as emerging and established company transactions grow in complexity and scale," said Ken Bullock, Houston office partner-in-charge. "He brings deep experience in private equity, debt finance, and complex corporate transactions, coupled with leadership roles spanning law, finance, and operations, enhancing our ability to deliver integrated, business-focused counsel across Texas and nationally. We're thrilled to have him join FBT Gibbons."

Mazow brings more than 20 years of experience advising family-owned and founder-led companies, as well as private equity and debt investors, on complex transactions and strategic initiatives. His background spans private practice, in-house leadership, investment management, and executive operations, giving clients a practical, business-centered perspective. He advises companies, owners, and investors on mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, private equity and debt financings, governance matters, and general corporate issues. His industry experience includes food and beverage, consumer packaged goods, online retail, business services, aviation services, manufacturing, financial services, and software.

His addition follows recent hires of commercial finance partner Sarah Naseman and private equity and transactional partner John Thomas, reflecting FBT Gibbons' continued investment in building a premier corporate and transactional team that can deliver sophisticated, business-driven counsel to middle-market companies and investors across the country.

“Having spent my career as a lawyer, investor, and operator, I’m drawn to firms that truly understand how businesses grow and evolve,” Mazow said. “FBT Gibbons combines sophisticated legal capabilities with a deep appreciation for the real-world challenges facing founders and management teams. I’m excited to join a platform that supports clients not just through transactions, but through every stage of their growth.”

FBT Gibbons’ Corporate Law practice serves as trusted counsel to some of the most well-known companies around the globe, providing comprehensive legal support across all areas of law integral to a successful business. The firm assists clients in executing complex transactions, managing risk and compliance, and implementing cost-effective solutions to address the diverse challenges encountered in the day-to-day conduct of business.
